

DEPARTMENT OF TRAINING AND CAPACITY DEVELOPMENT

About THETA

THETA-Uganda is a Non-Governmental Organization (NGO) and company limited by guarantee. It envisions A society where people enjoy good health as a result of their own collective actions as well as access to quality holistic services and Its core mandate is to improve health and access to health care through promotion of collaboration between the traditional and biomedical health care systems with its objectives; to promote research in herbal medicine, strengthen capacity for holistic health care, to build models for traditional and conventional medicine integration and to empower communities to take charge of their health.

TRAINING AND CAPACITY DEVELOPMENT

In collaboration with its partners, universities like Makerere University, Gulu University, THETA Uganda facilitates training needs assessment and development for short and long term courses and activities of continuous professional development in herbal medicine in Uganda

The department is earmarked as a centre of excellence for training and equipping traditional and modern health practitioners with skills for evidence based and ethical practices with a core mandate to promote evidence based and ethical practice in traditional medicine through research, training and stakeholder's engagement

CORE COMPETENCE /EXPECTED LEARNING OUTCOME

- Earn a living from herbal medicines
- Make a product from herbal medicines
- Register /patent your products
- Take the market of herbal product

THE CORE TRAINING PROGRAMMES OFFERED

- Extraction of herbal medicine
- Preparation herbal medicine
- Packaging and labeling herbal medicine
- Preservation of herbal medicine

- Quality control herbal medicine
- Business, Marketing and Value Additional of herbal medicine.

TARGET GROUP

The trainings target various institutions and individuals engaged and interested in herbal medicine practices. They will offer skills suitable for;

- Herbal medicine practitioners,
- Entrepreneurs.
- Consumers.
- Researchers.
- Non-government/civil society organization.

And all interested individuals.

TRAINING METHODOLOGY

The THETA training will be based on experiential learning where learning emanates from the past

FACILITATORS

The training will be facilitated by traditional health expert researchers, medicine practitioners and entrepreneurs from both THETA Uganda and partnering organizations

AWARD

Certificate of participation is awarded after completion

REGISTRATION

For interested person and organization to undergo training, application forms can be downloaded from:- THETA Uganda website www.thetaug.org

Or visit THETA office at

Plot 724/5 Mawanda Rd Kamwokya

P.O. Box 21175 Kampala – Uganda

theta@thetaug.org

Tel: (+256) 414532930/530619

Fax: (+256) 414530619

